Mr. Nelson:

Please consider this letter notification that the South Dakota Library Association proposes to conduct a raffle. The Association has received a gift of a handmade quilt and will offer raffle tickets on the quilt to the members of the Association beginning in August 2009. The drawing for the quilt will be held in Aberdeen in October. In compliance with state statute 22-25-25, we are also notifying the City of Aberdeen of our intentions.

The South Dakota Library Association is an educational organization. Our mission is to provide leadership and educational opportunities to our members. The proceeds of this raffle will support scholarships and grants for our members.

Thank you.

Nancy Sabbe
President, South Dakota Library Association
